Responsibility

Overall responsibility for ensuring compliance with Data Protection Acts rests with South Dublin County Volunteer Centre. However our responsibility varies depending upon whether we are acting as either a Data Controller or a Data Processor. All employees, volunteers and clients of South Dublin County Volunteer Centre who separately collect, control or process the content and use of personal data are individually responsible for compliance with the Data Protection Acts.

The Data Protection Coordinator in South Dublin County Volunteer Centre coordinates the provision of support, assistance, advice, and training throughout South Dublin County Volunteer Centre Ltd to ensure that South Dublin County Volunteer Centre is in a position to comply with the legislation. They will liaise with the Data Protection Commissioner's Office for guidance on specific cases.

Security of data

South Dublin County Volunteer Centre takes seriously its security obligations in respect of your personal data under the Data Protection Acts to prevent unauthorised access to, or alteration or destruction of personal data in our possession.

Right of Access

Where you have provided us with your personal data you have a right to be given a copy of your personal data in accordance with section 4 of the Data Protection Acts subject to certain exceptions. To request a copy of your personal data please read South Dublin County Volunteer Centre Access Request Policy before completing an Access Request Form and sending it to us at Data Protection Coordinator. Please note the following important requirements:

- we reserve the right not to process an access request that is not made in our Access Request Form format;
- we do not accept access requests via telephone, email or text message.

Right of rectification or erasure

If we hold incorrect information about you, which was originally submitted by you, you have the right to have the data amended. To request your right to rectification and/or erasure please send your request to us in writing at Data Protection Coordinator, South Dublin County Volunteer Centre, Unit F, Block 2, Exchange Hall, Dublin 24 together with:

1. Your name and address.
2. A description of the specific personal data you wish rectified.
3. If you request an erasure of your personal data all your data will be erased subject to the following important notice.

We are not required to rectify or erase your data where to do so would prevent you from meeting your obligations to us or where we are required to process (including retaining) your personal data for a lawful purpose in accordance with the Data Protection Acts. South Dublin County Volunteer Centre trusts that you appreciate we respect your right to privacy and that our honesty and integrity will mean that you will continue to trust us with your personal data, knowing that we will not use it for any inappropriate purpose

Procedures and Guidelines

This Data Protection Policy is supplemented (and may be amended) by specific policies and procedures adopted by the Board of South Dublin County Volunteer Centre Ltd. You can request copies of policies from the Manager of South Dublin County Volunteer Centre.

Review

This Data Protection Policy will be reviewed regularly in light of any legislative or other relevant developments.
